“ Kathy, Billy, Karen, Bryant, Tonya and all of the rest of Grace's family---my love and prayers go out to each of you. Your mother (grandmother and your dad, grandfather) were "very special" to me. I am so very thankful I was able to get back in touch with them just a few years ago and visit with them. (We had moved to GA about 23 yrs. ago and I had lost touch for a while.) They loved and welcomed me into their lives as if I was one of theirs many years ago when I met them through Calvary Baptist Church around 1972. They have made a very positive impact in my life and will forever hold a special place in my heart. Remember so well the many gospel singings we went to with them. They are in the arms of Jesus forever and we will be together again one day!!! Praying the Lord's blessings upon each of you. “ We were so blessed to have known Mrs. Grace the past few years. She was a faithful Christian lady whom we will miss very much. She loved her family , her church family and most especially the Lord. She was a faithful servant of the Lord - we will miss her dearly but know that we will be with her again. Our prayers are for comfort and peace for her family and friends.###imported-begin###Brent and Cheryl McGlothren###imported-end###
