“ Both Judy & I just learned of Greg's passing. So sorry. Memories come flooding back of our years in Chalmette and our next door neighbors, the Landry's. What a neighborhood we had and how blessed we were. May the Lord bring comfort to Jeff, Ricky, & Julie and all others that are mourning his loss. God Bless all with many sweet memories.

“ I was sorry to hear of Gregg's passing. We grew up together on the same block and I have lots of fond childhood memories of Gregg.

In fact one of the first memories of my life is of Gregg as an infant. One of our neighbors – Ms. Judy, I think – was babysitting him and visiting our house. She was rocking Gregg to sleep when the entire rocking chair collapsed on the floor. No one was hurt, but it was a big commotion.

Several years later, that baby in the pile of broken furniture became my best friend. We spent almost everyday of our summer vacations for few years hanging out together. Mostly unsupervised and unstructured time – riding our bikes, watching reruns on tv and reading comic books. Just enjoying being out of school and all the free time we had when we didn't have to feel guilty about wasting it.

I miss those times but I'm glad to have the memories of them.
