

Gwendolyn Lodaska Hartt Murray

November 11, 1931 - June 27, 2024

Gwendolyn, age 92, passed away on Thursday, June 27, 2024. She was a native of Nacogdoches, Texas and a resident of Ponchatoula. Throughout her life, Gwendolyn used her creative artistic gifts to create beauty in this world. For example, her many quilts she handcrafted over the decades, along with her angelic singing voice, singing 'on-pitch' every song. Always and in every way, her family always came first. Gwendolyn was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend who is already dearly missed by all who knew and loved her.

Gwendolyn is survived by her loving husband of 71 years, Robert Eugene Murray; son, Michael Don Murray; daughter in law, Beth Murray, 5 grandchildren, 8 great-grandchildren, along with numerous nieces and nephews.

Gwendolyn is preceded in death by her parents, Lonnie and Thelma Hartt; sister, Eleanor Aileen Hartt; and brothers, Lilburne Moss Hartt, Ray Foster Hartt, and John Leonard Hartt.
