“ To the Miller family, please know that we were blessed to know Mr. Harold and Ms Louise. In our hearts we know they are in Heaven together, maybe not as "the Millers" but however God has it all planned. I never had the chance to see him since her passing, but the times I did see them they were very close and full of love for each other. They sat on the back porch of "Uncle David & Aunt Ester" talking about the garden and things of that nature. So that's how they'll be remembered in our hearts. Stay close to God and He'll stay close to you. He'll lift you up when you feel down or maybe just a talk to say "thanks Lord for the times we had with them". With prayers, Skipper & Rhonda, Charles "Cubby" McDonald, and Madeline Cutrer.

“ I will miss the times I sat with Harold on his porch talking about old times and kin. I will also miss how he always walked me to his gate asking me to stay longer. I know that I will meet him at the Golden Gates to talk some more. My condolences to his family.
