

Heather Holton Windecker

June 26, 1982 - January 16, 2017

Heather Holton Windecker went to be with her Lord and Savior on Monday, January 16, 2017. A native and resident of Hammond, age 34. A loving mother, daughter and sister, Heather was a hard worker and devoted family member whom we deeply love and will greatly miss. She studied nursing in Waco, Texas, while also caring for her children and working as a waitress. Eventually licensed as a Register Nurse, she served at Providence Hospital, Waco, Texas and back here locally at Gulf States Post Acute Medical Specialty Hospital of Hammond. Heather was also an avid swimmer and softball player, but above all she loved her four children, Lana, Lexy, Justin and Jason.

Heather is survived by her devoted parents, William "Billy" and Kathie Holton, her loving brothers, William "B.J." Holton and Clinton "Blue" Bazor; her four loving children, Lana, Lexi, Justin and Jason Windecker; her nephew William Holton III and many aunts, uncles and cousins, and of course, her many friends. She is also survived by her friend and ex-husband, Walter "Flip" Windecker. Heather is preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Melvin and Doris Achord; her paternal grandparents, Leon and Helen Tycer; her sister Leslie Holton; her uncle Michael Achord and her aunt Elois "Lo" Karcher.
