“ I did not have the pleasure of knowing Mrs. Helen personally, but I do know 1 of her sisters (Mrs. Jessie) and 4 of her nieces (Cheryl, Karen, Celeste and Carol). I have heard these ladies speak so fondly of Mrs. Helen I feel I know her personally and I know she will surely be missed by all. Prayers going up for this family.

“ Mrs Helen was one of those people that was always ready to help out in any way. She didn't have a lazy bone in her body. She treated my family just like her own when we lived by Mark and Susie. We will miss her very much!!! God bless the family!!

“ *Maw maw,
Even though it's only been a few days, I think of you everyday. And everyday I cry. Tears fall constantly, and my heart hurts everyday. I think about the times we spent together. And I think about your smile. That I pray I see again someday. My heart was broken the day the Lord called you home. But, I know you are in a better place, in Heaven with Jesus and my Grandpa watching over me. You are a beautiful angel in Heaven. Now you can watch over me day and night. You will always be held deep in my heart. The angels will guide you to your precious place. You are truly an angel of Grace. Now you are home. You may rest in peace for which you truly deserve. You will be missed and remembered for your love. I will love you always and forever.
Your Granddaughter,
Valerie*
