Klein Jr of Ponchatoula; daughters, Victoria Klein Neyland (Bill) of Mandeville, and Theresa Klein Wainright (Martin) of Metairie; grandchildren, Raven Bordelon, Ricky Bordelon Jr., Megan Kristine, Katherine Wainright, Corey Neyland (Audri), Amelia Neyland Pursell (Jonathan), and Noah Neyland; great-grandchildren, Darcy Neyland, Fae Neyland, Benjamin Morkrid, Alexander Morkrid, Braden Bordelon, and Kairie Bordelon; and sister, Emma Brumfield Dyson (Elmer Lee).

Bennett; sisters, Launa Mae, Jewel Marguerite, Antoinette, Barbara Ellen, Audrey Lee, and Quida Catherine; and her brothers, Clifton Reed, Robert Hamberlin, Walter Nix Jr, and Hubert Monroe.

“ There is an empty space in my heart that only time can heal. However, I do understand that she is "in a better place", I am selfish and want her here with us, healthy and whole.

She was there for me, beginning with my first breath, and I am so very thankful that I had the opportunity to care for her until her last.

She was my rock, my role model, my mentor, my mother, and my father. I am so very PROUD of her and THANKFUL to have had her as my MOMMA!!!

“ My Grandmother was a strong independent woman. I am very fortunate to have that kind of role model in my life. I would be lying if I told you I was a well behaved child. I clearly remember not minding her at times. She was patient (definitely with me) soft spoken but bold when she needed to be. I am so grateful for the memories I have with her. It's not easy to accept that she is gone, but it gives me peace to know that she is watching over us. I find comfort in knowing that she is home now and enjoying the company of family and close friends that left her so long ago. Love you Mawmaw!

“ So sorry for your loss! She "fought the good fight" but just couldn't make it. I know you all will miss her every day but she is in no more pain! As sick as she was, she took the time to come visit my husband when he was ill. We will all miss her - Her cousin Frances Bennett. ”
