

Henry Lee DeRamus

June 2, 1946 - February 14, 2023

Henry "Lee" DeRamus

Lee (affectionately known as "Lemus"), age 76, passed away on Tuesday, February 14, 2023. He was a resident of Amite, LA. Lee was a hard worker who dedicated 44 years to what is now known as AT&T before retiring. He was an old soul who appreciated so many vintage and antique things. From British cars, radios and telephones, guns, knives, and Harleys, Lee enjoyed learning and collecting as much as he could. He was a true history buff and took the time to dive deep into his hobbies. Lee was a very giving man and was always up for a good conversation or finding a good book to get in to and to travel when possible. He enjoyed participating in the British car club, spending weekends at estate sales with his wife, and exploring antique shops, but his biggest passion of all was his family. Lee was most happy surrounded by those he loved and never missed an opportunity to spoil his grandkids and fur-babies. He was quite a remarkable man that left his family with a lifetime of memories. He will be deeply and forever missed.

He is survived by his wife of 55 years, Charlotte Vest DeRamus; daughters, Jennifer Winburn (Chris), Melissa Picou (Jim); son, Brandon DeRamus; grandchildren, Hannah Winburn Lloyd (Tyler), Cade Winburn; great-granddaughter, Juliette Lloyd; and his fur-babies, Bella Boo, Wally Bug, and Arlo.

Lee is preceded in death by his parents, Audrey and Henry DeRamus; and sisters, Marian Buchanan Lacher and Audrey Mae Buchanan Cannon.

“ Lee and I were friends from our East Jefferson Highschool days class of 1964.. We later reconnected when I returned to Louisiana a couple of years back. We talked on the phone and communicated via FB messenger. I had lunch with him and got to meet Charlotte a couple of years back. During this time we found that he had been a friend of my father but did not connect that he was my dad. I will miss him and prayers for Charlotte that the Lord will give her the comfort that only He can give.
