“ Hank was a gentle giant. I was his first manager when he came to Baton Rouge. He was a very nice person to everyone. He and I would go for lunch during our working years; a ritual we continued after he retired. I will miss our shared meals and conversation. RIP dear friend.

“ Hankster was a great friend and neighbor. Could always make us laugh! Enjoyed every evening walking outside and seeing him walk Max and talk about everything going on in life. I'm sure gonna miss him. Rest my friend the pain is now over.

“ I remember fishing with Hank and Bill on a boat out of Port Jefferson. The water was rough and the fumes from the boat didn't help. Hank got so sick, when we got home your Dad said to me “What did you do to my sons” 😭😭. Hank was a good guy, we only got together a few times before he moved to Louisiana. RIP Hank. My condolences to his family and friends.

“ I have known Hank since he moved to Louisiana and was Robins trainee.

We enjoyed his company and banter over many holiday meals, crawfish boils and countless fishing trips with me.

Hank will be missed

My most sincere condolences to Bill and Cindy
