“ My heart aches. I miss my big brother more than words can express. He was the most kind hearted,,loving person and trusting most likely to his detrement. He never met a stranger and would go out of his way to help anyone who needed it. We were very close and even though we lived afar, I always had him close in my heart. We loved to tell stories and joke around and we were the most alike out of all the siblings. Rest in peace Howard. I will miss you and keep you close in my heart. Love you! “ Howard was a friend that words can't describe. He was always there when needed and willing to do anything to help me.

What he did for me, which is more than what he did for me. He was there for me and listened to me and that gave me comfort.

I wish I would have told him that I loved him before he passed. I guess none of us realize what we have until we lose it.

Howard, I didn't have a chance to say good bye. Since we never did the good bye's your memory will always be among my best moments.##imported-begin##Tim Mashburn##imported-end##
