“ *Dear Susan and family, I am so sorry about your loss. I will always remember Huey as a friendly man. He was always smiling and I still have a copy of his poetry.
I was in the hospital after major surgery on the 15th and heard of his death recently.
May God give you strength. You will always be in my prayers.*

With much love from an old neighbor friend

“ Huey was a fantastic Uncle to his brother's Junior's, two daughters Janet & Cynthia & son Rodney, his nieces & nephew. I have had biscuits at his home & visited there. He & Susan were so great to my Mom & Dad. I wished I lived closer to take advantage of their friendship. Just a caring giving man was Huey. Everyone was so fortunate to have had him.

“ To Melissa and family, Wilkie and I did not have an opportunity to meet your dad but we remember how much you talked about him and your love of family. Your decision to return to Hammond from Virginia Beach was to be close to your parents. We enjoyed the pictures you would send with your dad and Jakob. Our hearts are with you always, Hugs ~ Wilkie and Susan Din
