

Hugh B. Dyer

March 27, 1947 - May 6, 2023

He loved God and the Blessed Mother.

He loved cars - fast cars, antique cars, toy cars, many cars.

He loved animals - especially dogs and elephants, super-especially, Chloe.

He loved fine dining and he loved to cook fancy meals - no paper plates or plastic utensils-ever; cloth napkins - always!

He loved to “Ponder.” (If you know, you know.)

Most of all, he loved us.

He didn't judge you by the color of your skin, your wealth or lack there of, or your status in society. He judged a person by their attitude and by what their eyes said to him of what was in the heart.

He was born on March 27, 1947, to Dr. Isadore and Catherine Bone Dyer in New Orleans, Louisiana. His older sister Susan welcomed him into the family and nine months later they were joined by sister Catherine. He loved telling that story on his father, the OBGYN.

He joined the U.S. Air Force in 1967. After proudly serving in Vietnam, he returned home to a mostly ungrateful country. Only in recent years did he hear the words, “Thank you for your service.” His heartbreaking response to that was that never before had anyone said this to him.

They call him “Dad”:

Robert, Paul, Brad (Erin), Laura (Ben), Adam (Lindsay), Jourdan (Jesse), Briege (Nicholas), Missy.

These call him “PaPa” or “PawPaw”:

Andrew, Whitney, Kailyn, Bennett, Mason, Charlotte, Ira, Archer, Isaiah, Kace.

And these know him as “Uncle Hugh”:

Katie (Eric), Helen (Shaun), Allan (Becky), Michael (Stephanie), Douglas (DeeDee), Patrick (Cortney) and many more grand-nieces and nephews.

And some unrelated men he called “brother”:

Allan, John and Scott.

For me, he brought love, joy, and a new way to live and enjoy life. He took me from a dark place and showed me the light. We created a family, enjoyed good times with many friends, loved going to the beach, and cheering on the Wolves soccer team. We worshipped and gave thanks to God for it all. Thank you, Jesus for my husband, Hugh Bone Dyer. I will miss him.

Hugh so quickly became one of our “most unforgettable characters”. He was absolutely unique and wonderful, and so full of life it’s almost impossible to think of him as gone. We will miss his larger than life presence, his generosity of spirit, and passion for the things and people he loved. You and all his loved ones have our most profound condolences.
