Ivadean Bishop Carlow

Ivadean Bishop Carlow age 67 of Livingston, Louisiana passed away on Wednesday, November 13, 2019. She was a native of Madisonville, Texas and a resident of Livingston. Ivadean was a one of a kind woman. She loved the small-town country life. Ivadean had a passion for horses and trail riding. She enjoyed picking guitars, hunting, fishing, and cooking, but above all she loved her family and friends. Ivadean adored taking her nieces and nephews to the lake to go fishing and swimming. She treasured her time spent with her daughter, Shelia. Ivadean and her sister loved to cook together for family gatherings and holidays. She truly lived her life from one adventure to the next and will be greatly missed.

Ivadean leaves behind her daughter, Shelia Lynn Peterson and husband Steve; sister, Jamie Mignon Roberts and husband David; granddaughters, Kendra, Kassi, and Kady Peterson; as well as nieces and nephews, Pamela Kay Hill and husband Barclay, Mistie Akin and husband Stacy, Daniel Roberts and wife Alissa, James Roberts and wife Marla, , Shane Wiggins, and Chris Roberts and wife Monica.

She is preceded in death by her father, Ivaleti Bishop; mother, Sadie Modene 'Dean' Walker; and stepfather, Johnny Walker.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the visitation at JM Day Funeral Home, Madisonville, Texas, on Tuesday, November 19, 2019 from 5:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. A Graveside Service will be held on Wednesday, November 20, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. in 10 Mile Cemetery.

“ Ivadean was a force to be reckoned with, she was fierce rough and gruff. But underneath all that...she was a kind soul. She helped me and guided me through horse questions. She was one of kind. I will dearly miss our talks and her advice. I was blessed to see the softer side of such a tough woman. I loved her so much!
