“ Uncle J.C. we will never forget you & all that you have done for us. I still have the wooden baby rocker you made for me as a child, all of the pictures that you have taken of me & Donald. You were an awesome man of God and a great husband, friend, uncle and brother. Many things i will never forget about you & how you blessed my life. I miss those old days, but you now have new days in heaven. God bless Ms. Shirley, your brothers, aunts, uncles, patsy and your entire family. Rest easy- Elizabeth Martin Mitchell- Houston, Texas

“ I will never forget fishing with him or him teaching me how to tie my own fly baits. So many memories of fishing & some im sure he wouldn't want to to tell like the time Pasty dumped the ice chest on him trying to help him up. You will be missed my friend but I rejoice we will see each other again. Now Jesus can cook you breakfast in person!
