“ Just got the news of my cousin Jacky's death. We were the same age and it would be a treat for me to hang out with him at "the farm." I guess we did a few chores, but mostly we roamed around the fields and the river, ate fresh watermelon and corn straight from the vine and the stalk, tried to ride that devious donkey, and pushed-started Charles' hot rod. We lost track of each other after we left Las Cruces and I am so sorry to hear of his passing. My thoughts and prayers go out to the friend and family he has left behind.

“ As a child I remember my brother, Jacky being a very good horseman. He, and my dad took his horse (Sugar) to many rodeos and gymkhana's. Where he did barrel racing as well as steer roping. Then I member the dare devil side of him: Jacky broke his leg riding his scooter, broke it again running through a glass door, broke his collar bone riding a 3 wheeler,.. This is only his younger years. Later at a family get-together at the lake, I remember him getting in his truck to drive to the showers, only Mom's little poodle was tied to his hitch, dog ran fast, Mom did too, and we all survived and had a good laugh. Jacky was not only a brother to me, he was my friend. I will love & miss him. See you again one day. Love you, Gloria “ Jacky, my brother, so many memories. One that sticks in my head is when daddy gave all of us kids our "one eared donkey" named Pokey. You and Charles taught all of us how to ride him. He usually bucked us off, but eventually we all learned how to ride him. Of course you boys were always better than me. We had so much fun with our little donkey. Thank you for all those riding lessons. I'll love you forever. Your sister, Esther.

“ I will miss my dear brother Jack, and I am lucky to have many wonderful memories of him. He was my older brother (four years older), and I vividly remember when I was about 5 or 6 years old he would chase me and my younger brother Billy with a baby bottle of milk, fresh from the cow. When he caught us, he would squirt the disgusting, creamy concoction into our mouths as he held us down. It wasn't a funny story to me and my baby brother Billy then, but now it's been a story our whole family has laughed about over the past fifty years. I guess that's what older brothers do. Not only did he tease us, he also defended us against older bullies in school, taught us how to ride bikes, and, later, how to drive a car. His last lesson may be the most valuable -- to live one's life fully with passion and love and to battle long and valiantly against an awful disease. May you now rest in peace. With Love, Donny

“ Jack and Debbie were our neighbors in Gardendale Texas for several years. They both were the epitome of "good neighbors ". Jack always had a project going and could do anything he set out to do. He will be missed very much by his friends and especially his family.

“ *In the mid 1950's, Jack and his older brother Charles, at great personal risk, entered a raging fire that had engulfed their younger brother Donny and carried him to safety. That young boy became my husband. I want to acknowledge Jack's (and Charles') heroism and selflessness. Without their bravery, my husband would not have survived and become my darling partner of 29 years. Jack will be sorely missed but never forgotten. My sincere condolences to Jack's wife Debbie and to his children. You're in our prayers.
