“ Mr. JV was a very special friend of my dad's Mr. Emitt Greer who lived on Bloss Street over in Livingston. He would come by and spend time with my dad when he was not able to get out and go places. They would sit for hours and talk about the war, fishing, and hunting. Sometimes they would both be napping in the chairs with the TV going. Mr. JV would always ask about my brothers in Brookhaven and in Pineville how much fishing they was doing and if they had extra he would take it. He would come by my house sometimes on Pine Street and stop to say hello or pick up a pack of fish. He was always so kind and did not forget anything. He had a good mind. I loved seeing him in church and all the AMEN he would say. He was a very Christian man.

Sorry for your loss and he will be missed, I will remember him as my dad's friend and I am sure they are in Heaven together now telling old stories
