

James "Lynn" Roberts Jr.

September 29, 1968 - August 2, 2024

James Lynvell Roberts Jr., born on September 29, 1968, at the age of 55 passed away on August 2, 2024. He was a resident of Ponchatoula, Louisiana. Lynn was a huge family man where the most important thing to him was being the absolute best father and husband he could be. He was a caring man who would give you the shirt off his back to anyone in need. Lynn was known for his infectious personality; to his friends he was like the brother they didn't have. He enjoyed riding his motorcycles, fishing, boating, cooking, and working on cars. His garage was always open and full 24/7. Most of all he cherished the time he spent with his family. Lynn was a loving husband, father, brother, grandfather, and uncle who is greatly loved and missed. He always said that he had everything in this world he could ever want. Lynn is still living the dream.

Lynn is survived by his wife Debbie Roberts; daughter, Tiffani Roberts; sons, Kyle Roberts and Austin Roberts; sisters, Annette Griffith and Beverly Payne; and grandson, Sawyer Roberts, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Lynn is preceded by his mother, Vivian Ford Roberts; and his father, James Lynvell Roberts Sr.

“ I met Lynn in our early days at Triad Electric. We immediately connected the first time we met. His first statement with that smile was, "Elvis is alive, he's the King of Rock and Roll." I laughed. Many many days I talked with him about Christ. I always encouraged him to love the Lord with all his heart. One of the most memorable guys I've worked with. Once you met him, you couldn't forget him. I pray for his family at this time.

I met Lynn where I work at Buffalo Wild Wings. Something clicked whenever we met. He would often bring his grandson to see Mr. Dave at Buffalo's. Over time, Lynn and I became very close. I was his confident and he was mine. Many times we would talk and it seemed to serve a purpose either way. I still can't believe this has happened. When we saw each other and asked how we were doing we would both reply "Living the dream". Lynn was an excellent cook. We were invited to them many times. He would make sure that my wife had something to eat as she is a picky eater. We were invited to a crawfish boil at his house. He asked me many times if I was coming. As usual I couldn't make it because of work. Lynn showed up at the restaurant with a cooler full of crawfish. He look me in the eyes and said, "Since you couldn't attend the boil I brought the boil to you". I am going to miss his hug as would give me each time we saw each other. The world has been robbed of a wonderful, genuine and infectious man. Lynn, I love you buddy and I hope heaven has a spot for your grill to cook for the angels. Till we meet again, my brother.
