

Janet Sue Boandl

February 3, 1937 - May 31, 2015

Janet Sue Boandl

The Amazing Mrs. Janet, age 78, passed away on Sunday, May 31, 2015. She was a native of Pennsylvania and a longtime resident of Hammond, Louisiana. Janet was a registered nurse, spending most of her career attending patients at Valley Manor Nursing Home and worked at a Jewish day care center for many years. She was very crafty and an amazing seamstress that made one of a kind costumes and work clothes. Janet loved traveling and was always on an adventure. She gathered many friends and kept them close throughout her life. Janet was very close to her family and will be missed by all.

She is survived by her son, Bill Ellingham and wife Missy; step-daughter, Beverly DeNucci; grandchildren, Melanie Abshire and Billy Ellingham; step-granddaughters, Michelle and Melanie Bell; great-grandchildren, Heath and Angel; sisters, Shirley Seery and Morjorie Llewellyn; as well as many beloved nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews.

Janet is preceded in death by her husband, Walt Boandl; son, Jeffrey; parents, Hudson and Marguerite Houser; brother, Danny; and her sister, Marilyn Romanchik.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the visitation from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home, Hammond, on Thursday, June 18, 2015 from 11:00 a.m. until the memorial service at 1:00 p.m. Bro. Wayne Yates will be officiating.

Tribute Wall

MF

“ To a fantastic woman who always had a smile to share and a wave to a neighbor who's blessed legend lives on in son, grandchildren and memories of her family. Heaven gained a wonderful Angel and help shine the heavens with her smile and charm. Prayers to her family who one day be greeted with her loving greatness in the kingdom of our savior.

“ Bill, I'm so sorry about your mom. I never had the pleasure of meeting her, but she sure gave the world a great son which screams volumes of what kind of lady she was.
