Well said mommy! I love you and know she loved you unconditionally she told me once you reminded her so much of Landry, that's one of the (very many) reasons she loved being around you. I've never told you that but feel you should now know that she loved you from top to bottom!

“ I’m sorry to learn of Jeanene’s passing. I taught Jeanene when she attended Vinyard Elementary. She also cut my hair many times. She was always friendly and fun to talk with. God’s blessings on her family.
