“ Jerifaye and I were childhood friends and stayed friends until her death. I'm so sorry she's gone. But I know she's happy to be with her beloved Randy and her parents. She called me just a few weeks before she died for one last talk. Im so glad she did. Gerry Hull Brown

“ My fondest memories of Jerri were when we were little girls and always had fun playing together. Our Daddy's were brothers and we lived next door to each other until we moved away when I was 7 years old. I can remember when I was about 5 and Jerri was 4 our Momma's dressed us in matching dresses with big white collars and took us to have our picture made together. We went to the school on picture day even though we were not even in school yet. In the picture you can tell neither one of us looked happy. I guess we both would rather have been playing. I will be praying for all of us who loved Jerri. Remember John 3:16 and take comfort in Psalm 23.

“ I loved Jeri her whole life. I was only five years old when she was born and my sister would bring me home with her for weeks at a time. Jeri and I grew up close. She was so talented and loved to share her work with others. My grandchildren loved their crocheted blankets and I have beautiful meaningful pictures in almost every room. We could talk to each other about everything and I miss her already. I'm sorry I will miss her celebration of life service but so glad we had a wonderful visit the last Sunday I was home. My thoughts and prayers are with my family as they mourn our loss.
