“ The first time i met him and Judy they treated me like family. He was Alllllwayssss cooking up a pot of vittles!! He always cooked a BIG POT too. Constantly asking if you got full or if you wanted more of this. He also BRAGGED on his kids. His eyes lit up when you would mention their names and what they did or what their doing... His main TERD was D. J. That boy could do no wrong. Now i mean that in where he got punished when he needed it, but JIMMY was the one n only that handed it to him. His LOVE for D. J . Was where his HEART & SOUL was COMPLETELY for many many years.. He Enjoyed all his grandkids and the girls got ALOT of ATTENTION when they were with him n Judy. I really am BLESSED to have known the both of them. They were a "One in a MILLION" Couple and were always a PLEASURE to be around them. I know that JIMMY will be MISSED MORE than there are words in the dictionary. I am SO, SO VERY SORRY for your loss and I PRAY that the LORD gives you Peace and Guidance as your days come .
