“ Although I had not seen Joe in almost 40 years, we worked together many years ago for the City of Hammond. Joe was always a very sweet & respectful friend & a pleasure to be around. My sympathies to his family, and may he RIP.

“ To: Mrs. Graziano & Family, I first met Mr. Joe in the early 1980's when I met & married a young man that was employed with Hammond Police. Mr. Joe was a very caring & friendly person. He was wonderful to be around and was always smiling. I just wanted to let you know that. You and your family are in my prayers & thoughts. Cherish your memories for time will not take those away. God will carry you thru this valley and you will come out on the mountain top it just will take time to make your climb! Be blessed!
