“ I once worked for his nephew George at Ponchatoula Cleaners, George called him Uncle Joe. When Big Joe come by the cleaners are call on the phone I will tell George he was needed either on the phone or at the front desk George would ask who is it? Then I would say Uncle Joe so I called him Uncle Joe as well, but I knew him before when I would go get my brake tag and buy tires at Hammond tires when it was in the fork in the road he was a good man one day when I was getting my tag I left my wallet at home he went on and put the tag on I went home and got his money and brought it back that's how we used live in a small town Hammond. Later when I started singing with a Domino Band he didn't realize I could sing but every time he saw me he would tell me how great I sing and constantly encourage me to continue on. Take Your Rest Uncle Joe.

“ Dear Pat, 'Lil Joe, Karla, and Kevin,
When I heard of Cousin "Big Joe's" passing, I was shocked. He left this earth way before his time. I am going to miss seeing him almost every Sunday afternoon passing by our house on his chuck wagon on his way to the Notariano "Neighborhood" to visit with his cousins. He loved life, he loved his family, and he loved helping others in need. He was truly a generous man and would give the shirt off his back if anyone needed it. Joe was one of four male cousins in our family who was honored to take the name of our Dear Grandfather, Joe. Maybe that is how his nickname "Big Joe" came about. "Cousin", you will be truly missed by everyone. We love you, and may God wrap his loving arms around you in Heaven.
Your cousins,
Jo Ann and Sal Prescia

“ I admit that I have often thought of "Big Joe" as the Pied Piper of Hammond, in that with his tanacity and load of charm, he could stand on the street corner and draw a crowd and not lift a finger.

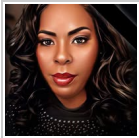

The Brother had a knack for talking and a Gift of Gab loathed for by some a many of Gospel Preachers, including this one.

He loved prayer, his God, Family and Church.
Encouraged people to get a job and stop whining.

Thank God for "Big Joe of Hammond". We've been greatly touched by Him.

“ Joe is my brother-in-law. I am Pat's youngest sister, Dorothy Taylor Greene. Joe is someone that I have always looked up to. When I was little, and he and Pat were dating and newly married, he would take me to the Zesto drive-in to get ice cream. Although I was too young to really remember that, the story is real to me because Joe would tell me about it with such joy in his eyes and laughter in his smile that I knew it was a special memory for him and one that binds us together.

His love for people and helping those in need are his trademarks. He would often talk about the kids on his school bus. He loved them and was a great influence in many of their lives. His impact in the Hammond area community is immeasurable. Everyone knew, "Big Joe."

Joe, you have been an awesome brother-in-law and have influenced many lives for good! Thank you for being such a wonderful husband to my sister. I love you and we will meet again.

Rest in peace, dear brother. You are greatly missed!

“ Karla and family: So sorry for your loss. Mr. Joe was always so friendly and he treated Hannah like his own grandchild, which is something not a whole lot of men would do. His personality was larger than life and his passing will leave a big gap in the lives of all that knew him well. I'm sure of that. R.I.P. Mr. Joe.
