

Johnny Canzoneri

September 14, 1954 - February 9, 2021

Johnny, age 66, went to his heavenly home on February 9, 2021. So many things can be said about this extraordinary man. A few that come to mind is his overwhelming love for his wife and daughter, and then later in life the addition of his son-in-law and beautiful granddaughter. Family had his heart. Another quality this great man possessed is that he never met a stranger, he would hold a conversation with anyone and everyone. The main topic was usually his blessed granddaughter Adeline or his home away from home cabin in Tennessee. All you had to do is insinuate or suggest that you had a project or task that needed to be done, and before you knew it, he had started and completed it for you. He was always there for you when you needed him. He would drop everything to help someone in need, whether family, friend, or stranger. We called this extraordinary man "Papa".

Johnny is survived by his loving wife, Evelyn Canzoneri; daughter, Ashley Bivona and son-in-law, Quinn Bivona; granddaughter, Adeline 'Addie' Grace Bivona; sister, Antoinette Williams; step-sisters, Ana Murillo, Suzanne Wylie, and Lupe Santiago; half-brother, Joseph Ard; step-brother, William Barrera; along with numerous nieces and nephews.

Johnny is preceded in death by his parents, Carlos Canzoneri and Catherine "Katie" Chapman; grandparents, Leo and Irene DiMattia; brothers, Luke Canzoneri, and Gaitino 'Guy' Canzoneri; and father-in-law, Luvawn 'Bonny'

Andrews.

“ Johnny & my brother Ralph Crockett, Jr. were friends and I know they shared many happy times! Now they are joined in Heaven together & surely trying to get into mischief! Your family have my deepest sympathy & you're in my prayers. I always like to share a scripture from Matthew 5:4 Blessed are those that mourn for they shall be comforted. Amen 🙏

“ I have some happy times memories with Johnny. He stayed with me and my 1st husband for awhile before he met the love of his life. I remember one time at the Strawberry Festival he escorted me to one of those port-potties and was so proud to be at my side. He said “Dang, Shirley, every one is looking at you”. I am glad I made him proud that day and I will never forget those memories plus so many more. I know he’s a special angel. Love you always.
