“ Errol was a great husband and father. He was so proud of all his girls. He was always there for all of you and loved being involved in all that you did. He will always be remembered and will be missed by his many, many friends. May God be with you and bring peace into your hearts. Love all of you, Sharon

“ Linda, Bonnie, Terry, JoErin and Becky my heart felt condolences go out to you all. I have so many memories of hunting and fishing trips with Errol. Each one better than the next. I'll definitely miss our phone conversations and our times talking over the " alligator sausage" at the Chevron in Lacombe. He'll will truly be missed, Love Henry
