“ Prayers to Joe's wife and family, including his mom and dad. Joe and I were very close friends in high school. We were in a rock and roll band at that time. It was first called Blue Ice and then we change it to Captain America. Joe was a gifted person, mostly as a musician. Again prayers to his family.

“ Joe was a true blessing to our tax team. He did more in the last 7 months to boost morale than we had in the department in the 7.5 years I have been in the tax department. He had amazing insight and provided excellent guidance. I enjoyed the stories he shared. Here are some of them: He told me how some baby hawks had fallen through the chimney at his house, how he used to have chickens when he was younger, how sunflowers don't grow in clay, how he grew up in Oklahoma and knew someone who was in a famous band, some work stories about IRS auditors, among a few more. He also mentioned how much he loved his grandbabies, and how his grandbabies were so smart and could show him a thing or two about iphones and tablets. Joe will be missed and we are heart broken that we will not get to see his morning messages anymore and truly grateful that we had the opportunity to work with him.
