“ Joe West was an amazing man. He lived life to the fullest, he had made a comment a few weeks before he passed, that he had had a wonderful life, with no regrets.

He seemed to know, somehow that he would be going home to be with the Lord soon, it was as if he just knew.

Joe will always be in my heart forever, and I will go on for him, knowing that I am a better person for having had his love.

Joe lost his Old Timer knife a few months back, bought another but it had no "memories attached." Can you believe the surprise this past week when it fell from the floorboard of my car to the ground. because Joe had not been in my car for a long, long time.

I know that he will be giving me other surprises, Joe loved to tease.

Joe, until we meet again, I love you, miss you and will always remember everything you taught me. Love, Susan###imported-begin###susan core threeton###imported-end##

“ Mr. Joe was a great man, and will always hold a special place in my heart. I am grateful to him for taking such good care of my mom, and for doing his best to make her happy. Ryan and I will never forget the afternoons we spent visiting mom and Mr. Joe. I know he is in a better place now, and will continue to take care of my mom from above.##imported-begin##Pamela Threeton Fisher##imported-end##
