I have always loved JD! He was one of the kindest people I've ever known and he & I were always glad to see each other & share family memories. When he & Gwen would come to visit when Twyla & Vanessa were little, the girls would let me sit them on the stool in my room & brush their hair. I loved stopping by his shop in Albany & just get a hug from him. He was a good man & will be so very missed. Betty Carol

“ Mr. J.D. was a very hard working and fair man. He and Mr. C.B. worked on our cars for years. He never was greedy. He later repaired our children's cars. He always helped the people of Albany and surrounding areas. No doubt he is in his new home, Happy. Rest in peace Mr. J.D.
