“ I will never forget Joe taking me and Matt boating and fishing. You should have seen the looks on their faces when I caught 8 large catfish and they didn't catch a one (which was very unusual). Joe fried the fish perfectly. During this visit we all attended church together. Joe loved The Lord and was always willing to serve others. He told stories that made me laugh. He had a great smile too. Joe will be greatly missed but never forgotten. Lynda and Matthew Hearn Ft. Worth, Texas.

I knew Joe well and spent a lot of time in his homes which I visited Brenda, Joe, any the family since the 80's. He was a man of God, family, hard work, a real craftsman, the best catfish fryer EVER, (but he loved my lasagna,) a friend to anyone in need, a friend to anyone, and the best husband, on, brother, father, and grandfather ever! I love you Joe, and will miss you on my trips to Hammond!! 🙏❤️💔😭
