“Joyce and I met through the automobile business and became fast and long lasting friends. Several things were crystal clear at first encounter. The only one Joyce loved more than Donald was Jesus and how she loved them both and her family. She was a beautiful lady always impeccably dressed complete with pretty jewelry and she loved beautiful cars. It was apparent on first meeting she was pampered by Donald and that they adored each other. That continued as her physical health declined. God Bless Donald for being the husband God called him to be and always cherishing Joyce and lovingly caring for her. It was my privilege and honor to call her my friend. Prayers for all of you.
