“ There are so many wonderful memories with her. Some that come to mind are of her standing in the kitchen whistling her favorite tunes while staring out the window watching her grandchildren play. I never knew what songs she was whistling but they always made me smile. Her taking some 2x4s and making stilts to show us how to walk with them just to entertain us. She was amazing in every aspect. The thing that I remember most is her hugs she gave. She was a person full of love and her family were the most important things in her life. I will miss her every day.
