“ I'm so very sorry to receive the sad news of Ms. Judy's passing but thankful she is not in pain. She was a very special lady with a heart of gold and always treated everyone with a caring giving heart. I worked with her at Elmer Candy for many years. She will be sadly missed. Please know the family is in my thoughts and prayers at this time.

“ My Dear Sweet Aunt Judy there are no words to exspress what a unique and truly precious lady you have been in our lives. I will forever remember being a young girl sitting at pawpaws pond that day crying my eyes out because I just couldn't understand the why of things we suffer thru. You came sit beside me and said baby girl the bigger your heart the deeper your pain but be thankful for that heart God gave you and remember no matter what dont let the devil take that heart from you. Just be still and silent Pray and give it to the Lord. I have always done just that more so because I so admired that very quality in you. I Love you Aunt Judy I shall miss you. But Ill take comfort in knowing you and Mama are together again. Until we meet again. Goodbye Dear Lady. Kiss Mama for me Love always your Loving Thankful Niece Lynn.
