“ Aunt Judy had joy that was unmeasurable. Her voice was very distinct and I can still hear her laugh. She lived next door to us as I was growing up and I always remember her as fun and welcoming. One time when I was probably 5 or 6, Aunt Judy had to put my hair clip back in my hair...I remember bracing for the pain I was used to, but she was so gentle...I've never forgotten her gentle hands. I always looked forward to seeing Aunt Judy. I was actually headed to Tennessee for my first time ever when I heard that she had passed. I now know why her and Uncle John loved Tennessee so much. Such a beautiful place! I will never forget her and her smile! Much love and my heartfelt condolences to all her family💕💕
