“ Dear Family, Amy and Joel, There are times when I wish I were a guardian angel. In my hearts spirit, I wanted to be with all of you as you gathered together to honor and celebrate the life of one of God's exquisite creations. We see everything physical through our eyes and we mourn and grieve her physical loss, no longer for us to see. With our soul's spirit and heart , we still mourn and grieve at this child's physical loss. However, because we are created beings and know of our Holy Master in heaven, we have the blessed assurance of His Word, His Truth, His Love and His Comfort. We are enabled to carry on through our sorrow, grief and pain because of Him, who is our strength, comfort and trust. We all will miss her physical presence,especially those closest to her. We know where Kamryn's at and who she is with. We know she will always be there and that one day we will be with her once again. Our broken hearts will be mended, we will be comforted and we will experience the joy and peace of our Loving Majestic Master. Oh, how thankful we are to have this knowledge. Oh, how thankful we are to our Heavenly Father.....Love and peace to all, R.& D.L.

“ It is always sad to see one of God's little ones leave us. Especially on 31 days into life on earth. Keep faith in God and he will see you though. "All things are possible through Christ who strengthens me" Phil. 4:13
