“ I will always remember going to Ms Kathy and Mr Richards house all the time but especially at Christmas time. They always felt like home and Ms Kathy was always mom #2 to me. I remember riding home from the fairgrounds and my mom and Ms Kathy had the radio turned all the way up windows down just living life to the fullest. I was so happy when we gave Rico to Ms Kathy because i knew he could never be more loved. Rest easy Ms Kathy and continue watching out for all of us as you always did. I am so blessed to be able to say i knew an angel on Earth. I will truly miss her funloving and selfless soul.

“ I remember when Jean, Marlene, Kathy and I all tried to sleep in a full size bed one night for a sleepover. Not one of us got any sleep and all we could do was giggle. Grandma kept yelling at us to quiet down and go to sleep. There were many times like these growing up. I'll cherish each memory sweet friend!
