“ Aunt Kay will definitely be missed and her delicious food as well. Such a sweet soul. Uncle Jerry won't know what to do with our you You will be deeply missed by all. Sorry to the rest of the family as we won't be able to make the service and I'm sure you understand why. May she rest in no pain now with God and rejoice with her family. Till we meet again. “ There are few people that cross our paths with such humbleness, thoughtfulness and sweetness as was Kay. She was always willing to pitch in and help. She was a wonderful wife to my brother, a wonderful cook, the woman could cook anything! I'll miss her coconut cake she always made for our family events. She was so easy to talk with and there will definitely be a void in our hearts. There really aren't enough words when we lose a family member. I hope she knows how much she was loved, how much she will be missed. I know she's with Jesus, as we talked about being a believer being so important. Rest in the arms of Jesus sweet Kay.
