

Kayla Lynn Ernst

December 23, 1986 - May 1, 2017

Kayla, age 30, went to her heavenly home on Monday, May 1st, 2017 in Hammond, Louisiana. She was a lifelong resident of Ponchatoula, Louisiana, who worked as a server. Kayla adored her two sons, Haze and Knox, whom she spoiled every chance she got. She was a fun-loving person, who loved music (especially The Beatles), being around her friends, but most of all she loved being with her family. She was the most non-judgmental person you could ever know, and her smile was so contagious that it could light up any room she walked into.

Kayla leaves behind her handsome sons, Haze and Knox Selby; her parents, Gay Sterken and husband Barry, and Michael "String" Ernst; and her partner, Hamrick Selby. She is also survived by her grandparents, Tommie Robertson, Levi Robertson and wife Gail, Joyce Ernst; sister, Amanda Sterken; brother, Benjamin Ernst; as well as numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

She is preceded in death by her grandfather, Joseph Ernst.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the visitation from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home, Ponchatoula, on Friday, May 5, 2017 from 10:00 a.m. until the funeral at 12:00 p.m. Interment will follow in the Ponchatoula Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Autism Speaks, <https://act.autismspeaks.org>, or to The Special Olympics at 1000 East Morris Street, Hammond, LA 70403.

“ Sorry for the lost. Just found out about Kayla's passing she really was a wonderful person. Growing up i was always bigger than most guys, but kayla just saw me as another human who had feelings too. She was a great wonderful person who will be missed by all that knew her. It breaks my heart i won't get to see my beautiful, wonderful friend again in this life. She really was a rare friend that i will miss. My heart crys for all who knew her and loved her “ Kayla was a beautiful girl inside & out. Motherhood made her even more beautiful.

She dearly lived her boys & I can still see her strolling them down the street or pulling them in the wagon-All smiling and laughing.

May Our thoughts & prayers for all of you combined with others help ease your sorrow & know that she is in God's loving arms forever.

“ Stunning is the word that comes to mind when I would see Kayla. I remember Christmas Eve at her mother's house walking in seeing the beautiful Kayla wearing leggings and a long shirt and her beautiful, long hair on top of head, no makeup and it took my breathe away. She had a natural beauty that radiated both inside and out. She LOVED her family and that same LOVE I am sure she bestowed on her friends. I never heard her say a disparaging word about anyone. I remember Gay and Tommie brought her to a BEATLES tribute in New Orleans and I asked what she wore and of course Tommie replied "a black striped shirt and a beret", how KAYLA the most beautiful woman in the room that night...NO DOUBT MY PRAYERS AND LOVE FOR GAY, BARRY, HAZE and KNOX, MIKE, HAMMRICK, BEN, TOMMIE, SHARI, ROY, RYAN, ALLIE KATE & GRANT, LEVI AND GAIL and many other aunts, uncles and cousins... I WILL NOT 4GET U...

“ She and her contagious smile will be dearly missed, I only met her within the past few years due to her and my daughter being co-workers at Cafe Nola and Lees Drive Inn... she was so easy to love at first sight with her humorous personality and quirky sense of self. I pray for her children and family that God may bless you all with peace and understanding, hope the inspiration she was to you in her life time and the memories you shared with comfort your hearts and souls to help ease the pain of losing such a kind hearted, sweet and beautiful young lady! Forever inky Prayers 🙏😭
