Tribute Wall

“ I worked with Kelly many years .No finer man have i ever known and i will miss him very much. I called him Hog Jaws. He loved to play pranks on me. One day they welded my bumper to a metal pole and as i was getting ready to leave i was squealing tires and couldn:t figure out why i wasn:t going anywhere and Kelly was hiding with his whole crew laughing. They took my battery out of my truck once and had it hooked to a tv to watch ball games. Kelly was one of the best people to be around. Always had a smile on his face.I will have fond memories of Kelly forever.He was a very rare person who showed only kindness to everyone . God Bless all his family and loved ones .##imported-begin##Ken & Brenda Aime##imported-end##

“ His laughter will also be remembered. He was always so kind. He was always willing to lend a helping hand. There so many times that he helped Bruce around the house when something broke. Nothing in return , just helping out. A true godly person who loved his family with all of his heart and let it tell through his actions. God bless him and one day we will all meet again.##imported-begin##Farrell & Cissy McMorris##imported-end##
