“ Our condolences on Buddy's death. We were not aware of his death until after his funeral, so we extend our apologies for not being there to stand by the family. Perhaps we should not have "favorite" cousins, but Buddy WAS one of mine!

Love to the family,

“ I loved Uncle Buddy. We used to joke a lot when I stopped in at his shop or home. He will be sorely missed by me and so many others whose lives he touched. I thought very highly of Uncle Buddy, and made it a point to visit him at the garage when I was out and about driving. Sometimes, I visited him at home and we laughed while talking over cups of coffee.

“ My memories of Buddy go back many years prior to my meeting and marrying his nephew, Chip. Everyone in our Heitman family took our cars to Buddy Fletcher for repairs. I remember many times in the early adult years of my career when I had my first automobiles and was earning my own paycheck, Buddy was the one I relied upon to keep me safe on the road. He was always a kind, gentle man in whom I had confidence. and I relied upon his wealth of knowledge and experience. His shop was just blocks from our big home in Ponchatoula. Mrs. Ruby was always a friendly fixture in the shop, too, and knew a bit about most things going on in and around Ponchatoula. I miss those long-ago days and the folks who populate my good memories. Uncle Buddy's passing takes away another of those good people.— Cindy Heitman Fletcher
