“ Even though I don't know you or your family, I just wanted to express how saddened I am at the loss of your son. I read about him on the memory net. Life just is not fair at times and we cannot find answers many times. We just have to embrace the moments we have with our loved ones. Our lives can turn upside down and change in an instant. I wish there was something I could do, other than to offer my condolences. Sincerely, Linda ”

“ I can't believe that Ken is gone. When someone who brings so much life and light to the world leaves us-their loss creates such a void.

I have known Ken for 12 years and feel so blessed to have done so. 10 years ago -when he was only 29 years old-he helped me set up my business. Over the last 10 years Ken and I have interacted on a weekly or bi-weekly basis. In all of that time he was a true joy to have as a friend and business associate. Not once, even in trying times, did I ever see Ken lose his poise or hear him speak disparagingly about anyone.

He was a true class act and an example to us all. Imagine what the world would be like if we all treated each other as Ken treated others.

Sharon, Staci and I send our deepest condolences to you and your children. Ken will be greatly missed.

“ I can't believe I am writing a condolence for Ken. I just can't believe he is really gone. He was such a great person and a wonderful friend! In all the years I have known him, I have never heard him say a negative word about anyone or complain about having to do something. He was always willing to help, and his friendship was a sincere one. His death has impacted so many people on so many levels, and many lives will be forever changed. Ken had a love for life and people, and I feel blessed to have known him. I will miss him so much, especially that big smile and hearty laugh!

“ Ken's devotion to his family, friends and his clients was an inspiration to us. His generosity brought comfort and support at a time when it was most needed. We will never forget Ken, as our accountant, as Cathy's one-time client & as a friend, no matter how much time had passed between calls. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Frahm's and their extended family. Cathy & Jim Gaffney###imported-begin###Stacey Barker###imported-end##
