“ I love you Daddy and have missed you for a long time. I wish we would have been notified that you died, but as usual we were left out. I learned of your death by accident and that added to the pain of your death. Oh, well you now know how much you were loved by your daughter and that's what helps heals the pain of missing you. I know you are with our Father and no longer suffer. That gives me peace of mind also. I can talk with you now and feel close with you again, I always loved you and wished we could be close but I understood your reasons. I tried to honor your wishes even though it hurt. I will always love you and look forward to seeing you again in heaven.##imported-begin##Cheryl Louque##imported-end##
