Kevin John Calecas Jr. passed away on October 29, 2022 at the age of 32, he was born in Jefferson, LA to Bobbie Jo David and Kevin Calecas Sr.

Kevin loved being outdoors, it was when he was most in his element. If he wasn't out trying to catch that prized buck, he was out on lake or river catching the biggest fish you can imagine. Let him tell it and it will get bigger each time. If we wasn't after any game, he was on THE GAME. Staying up until the wee hours of the night playing video games with the boys. Never a dull moment with Kevin, his family can attest that he loved spending time with them whenever he had the chance. Whether it be camping together as a family or just spending any time cooking and reminiscing he was a very beloved family man.
