

Kim Lorraine Kreeger

September 22, 1959 - October 7, 2025

Kim Lorraine Armitage Kreeger, 66, of New Orleans, Louisiana, entered eternal rest on October 7, 2025, joining her Savior in the light of His love.

Born on September 22, 1959, Kim's life was a testament to her unwavering faith and boundless devotion to her family.

A devoted Christian, Kim found solace and strength in her deep relationship with God. Her faith guided her through life's joys and challenges, and she shared that light with everyone she met, offering kind words and a compassionate heart. Kim's love for her family was her cornerstone. She poured her soul into raising her four children—Ryan William Kreeger (Valerie), Eric Doyal Kreeger (Jenn), Rain Kreeger (Sheila), and Evan Robert Kreeger (Nathan)—instilling in them values of love, resilience, and grace. Her legacy continues through her six grandchildren and one great-grandchild, who brought her immeasurable joy.

Kim was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, and two husbands, Clyde Robert Kreeger, Jr., and then Charles Ray Brownell, Jr. Her life was a tapestry of love, woven with moments of laughter, shared stories, and quiet acts of kindness that touched countless lives.

Kim's memory will be celebrated in a private memorial. She will be missed, but her spirit will live on in the prayers she offered, the love she gave, and the lives she forever changed.
