“ I know this is a little late. I am so sad today to find out about Kim. I have known her for a while, but haven't seen her since the fire at Krawdaddy's. She was so funny. I always called her Dingy because she was always so busy she didn't have time to pay attention. I will miss her so much.RIP KIM

“ I will always remember Kims beautiful smile and her infectious laugh.
She is deeply missed by her family and friends but those that we love deeply are always a part of us, Kim may be gone from this earth but never from our hearts.
