Kristin Merwin Rosendale

Kristin joined her parents in heaven on Friday, November 1, 2019 at the age of 44. She was a longtime resident of Hammond. Kristin was a very generous and loving woman, always willing to lend a helping hand. She found beauty in all things in life, especially anything that was Tiffany Blue. Kristin enjoyed hosting parties and game nights at her home with her family and friends. She treasured her time spent with her adoring family, especially her two children. Kristin's family finds comfort knowing she is at peace and with her parents again. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

Kristin leaves behind her loving husband, Roger Rosendale, daughter, Ryleigh Rosendale; son, Brady Merwin; sister, Robin Merwin Becnel and husband Louie; brother, George Merwin IV and wife Kim; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, and countless friends.

She is preceded in death by her parents, George Merwin III and Carol Merwin.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in honor of Kristin to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

“ Having the honor of doing your hair for your wedding day was one of my favorite things. You were absolutely giddy about marrying the man of your dreams. My heart hurts for your family. Losing your love and warmth with be so hard. I know you've been reunited with your wonderful parents and you will shine your light on your loved ones that are still here and that brings me peace. You will be missed honey.
