

Larry Casanova

October 4, 1948 - January 20, 2014

Age 65, a native of New Orleans and a resident of Holden, William Lawrence “Larry” Casanova passed away on Monday, January 20, 2014. He was employed for 15 years by Anixter, as an offshore wire and cable salesman, and was an avid Alabama fan. After spending the majority of his life in the city, he found peace and solitude once he moved to his new home on 6 beautiful acres in the country, where he enjoyed relaxing and raising game chickens. Larry leaves behind his wife of 16 years, Shelly Casanova; daughter, Monica Appell; sons and daughters-in-law, Mark and Jeannell Casanova, and Kevin and Carrie Casanova; grandchildren, Spencer, Zachary, Lindsey, Joshua, Noah, Claire, and Connor. He is also survived by his mother, Rhea Murphy Casanova; sisters, Gail Parrozzo and husband Eddie, and Cheryl Casanova; brother, Glen Casanova and wife Elaine, numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his father, Joseph Clifford Casanova. Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral service from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home in Hammond, on Thursday, January 23, 2014 at 12:00 noon, with visitation beginning at 10:00 a.m. The service will be conducted by Larry’s brother, Deacon Glen Casanova, and interment will follow in Logtown Cemetery in Mississippi. Condolences and other information are available online at www.thompsoncares.com. Arrangements have been entrusted to Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home.

“ The day just wasn't started if you didn't see Larry as you walked in the door. He was always the first one there and always had the coffee going and kind word for you as you walked in. I will miss him. My deepest condolences for your loss.
