“ For those who don't know me, Mike Ottinger was my uncle. One of the strongest memories I have of him was during a time he and his family were visiting us in Wills Point, Texas. All the men in my family were together so they had all decided to take all of us boys out "Snipe Hunting". (My grandfather, Larry Ottinger, my Dad, Travis Schaubroeck, and uncles Troy and Mike Ottinger, and Pecos Suites) And by all of us boys I mean Bryan Ottinger, Mike's oldest son Jason, my brother Zac Schaubroeck and myself. They decided to wait till dark, and then took out in the woods, mind you we were all somewhat young at the time. But when the time came, they all played their games lol. One of the most memorable moment in all this was walking up on uncle Mike who was under a tree that had "fallen" on him. After realizing he was acting it out, Mike sure had a big laugh at all our expressions lol! ?? He sure like to pull all of the kids' legs with little pranks lol. One of the best memories I have of him. Just wanted to share that. You will be missed sir! Love ya uncle Mike! ??

“ Cindy my heart was broken when I heard that Mike had passed. I never quit praying for him from the moment I heard he was hospitalized. You know how some people just gains a special place in your heart, well Mike had that in mine. He was genuine, loved The Lord dearly and was kindhearted and always had a smile. He made my day a lot of Sundays with his hugs and smiles. I know he is shining brightly in a Heaven today. My heart so goes out to you and Bryan and your other children. I know your hearts are broken. I pray that Our Heavenly Father would comfort and strengthen and give you the peace that surpasses all understanding. Love you much and will continue to lift you in my prayers.

“ I got to know Mike during his teens -- he was part of a neighborhood group of kids that included my niece, Shelly Crosthwait. I remember him as a person who positively affected others, and thinking he was a good influence for the other kids. Apparently that stayed true throughout his life. He will be missed.
