

Latimer "Bubba" Brock Jr.

November 8, 1954 - December 13, 2021

Bubba, a resident of Tickfaw, LA and a native of Magnolia, MS, passed away peacefully surrounded by his loving family on Monday, December 13, 2021 at the age of 67. Bubba was born on November 8, 1954 to Latimer Brock Sr. and Lyna Brock. He retired from Valero in St. Charles with a lengthy career as an Operations Supervisor. Bubba was a one in a million man and one of the kindest souls to ever walk this Earth. He never met a stranger and spoke to everyone as if they were long lost friends. Bubba was always the first one to make sure everyone was smiling and laughing. He was a fan of camping, golf, cruises, LSU Tigers, the New Orleans Saints, and especially his beloved family. Bubba was loved by many and will always be remembered for his warm smile, and his fun, silly personality. He opened his home and heart to many and called them family without question. There was no limit to the ends he would go to for the ones he loved; and he would always throw in a life lesson somewhere. Bubba will truly be missed and as we lost a great one, Heaven is gaining the angel they didn't know they needed.

Bubba is survived by his loving wife of 33 years, Cecelia Strate Brock; son, Dennis Brock (Gretchen); daughter, Cristalle Brock; son, Latimer Brock III; grandchildren, Lexa, Joee, Jonathan, Devin, Reagan, Ryan, Adelyn, Reanna; and siblings, Robbie, Carolyn, and Betty.

He is preceded in death by his father, Latimer Brock Sr.; mother, Lyna Brock; and brother, Ray Brock.

“ I was saddened to read of the passing of Bubba. I remember him also as a fun loving, kind, just all around good guy! My deepest sympathies go out to his sweet wife, children, grands, siblings and particularly Bubba Jr whom I remember as a little boy. Miss Lina was my next door neighbor for a good many years. He came from a sweet family. God Bless and comfort you all.

“ We called him "Big Bub." Big Bub was the "King of Hey Batter Batter Swing!" I remember summers in Amite and Pony League Baseball with Big Bub. I was throwing all kinds of pitches to batters trying to get them to swing, and Big Bub was leading the Hey Batter Batter Swing chorus from Centerfield (a safe distance :). "Hey Batter, Batter, Come, Babe, Come Boy, You can't hit that ball..." So glad he was on my side. It was all I could do to hold it together... :).

Big Bub was one of a kind.
