“ Lena was my cousin and when I was little I always wanted to be like her....she was a very classy lady, who really loved her family. We all were so happy when she brought Mark home. Lena was a great Mom too. I remember ever Christmas how she baked cookies and made candy.....she always brought a pretty decorated plate,of them, to our house every Christmas. Len a collected vases and I always loved looking at them when we visited her. She became the monarch of the family, after Aunt Euraldia passed....everybody went to her when they needed advise. Rest In Peace Lena, I know Nannie, Mary Ann, Aunt Euraldia, Re Re and my mom, Annie will be glad to see you. ❤️
