

Lesley James Brumfield Sr.

September 10, 1951 - January 28, 2024

Lesley James Brumfield Sr., a life-long resident of Hammond, Louisiana died unexpectedly on Sunday, January 28, 2024. He was 72 years old. Lesley was born to Mr. James H. and Mrs. Ruth N. Brumfield on September 10, 1951 in Independence, Louisiana. He was educated in the Tangipahoa Parish School System. Later in life he began working with his father and brother on the Highway under the employment of the Boh Brothers Construction Company. A short time after, he began his career and life's passion as a plumber. Lesley gained skillful knowledge working closely under the guidance of his grandfather and personal mentor, Mr. Major Daniels. "Les" as he was affectionately known, quickly rose through the ranks and landed a plumbing position at the Hammond State School where he bonded with co-workers who quickly turned into friends. Les was a "Master Plumber" who could tell you just how to fix your plumbing issues without even looking directly at them. He was a genuine person with a heart of gold. You could always hear him saying, "Ain't that something!" and "I love yall even if yall don't care nothing 'bout me!" He was a loving husband, devoted father, generous brother and a dear true friend. Les will definitely be missed but his love and legacy will continue to live on.

He leaves to cherish his love and memories, his wife Mary Carter of Hammond, La. (4) daughters - Jennifer Johnson of Albany, La. Karen(Casey)Jackson and Leslie "ReRe" Hegwood-Brumfield both of Hammond, La. and Cheisa Shaquita Brumfield of Dallas, Texas. (1) son -

Lesley James Brumfield Jr. of Hammond, La. He also leaves (10) grandchildren, (14) great-grandchildren, and (1) great-great-grandchild. (3) sisters - Evangelist Robietine(Willie)Graves, Elaine Brumfield-Jackson, both of Hammond, La. and Gwendolyn(Kenneth) Burton of Ponchatoula, La. (1) brother - Samuel Ray Brumfield of Hammond, La. A host of nieces, nephews, special relatives and so many friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents - Mr. James H. & Mrs. Ruth N. Brumfield and his baby brother Jarvis Brumfield.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the visitation at St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church on Sunday, February 4, 2024 from 1:00 p.m. until the funeral service at 2:00 p.m. Interment will follow in St. John Temple Church Of God In Christ Cemetery.
